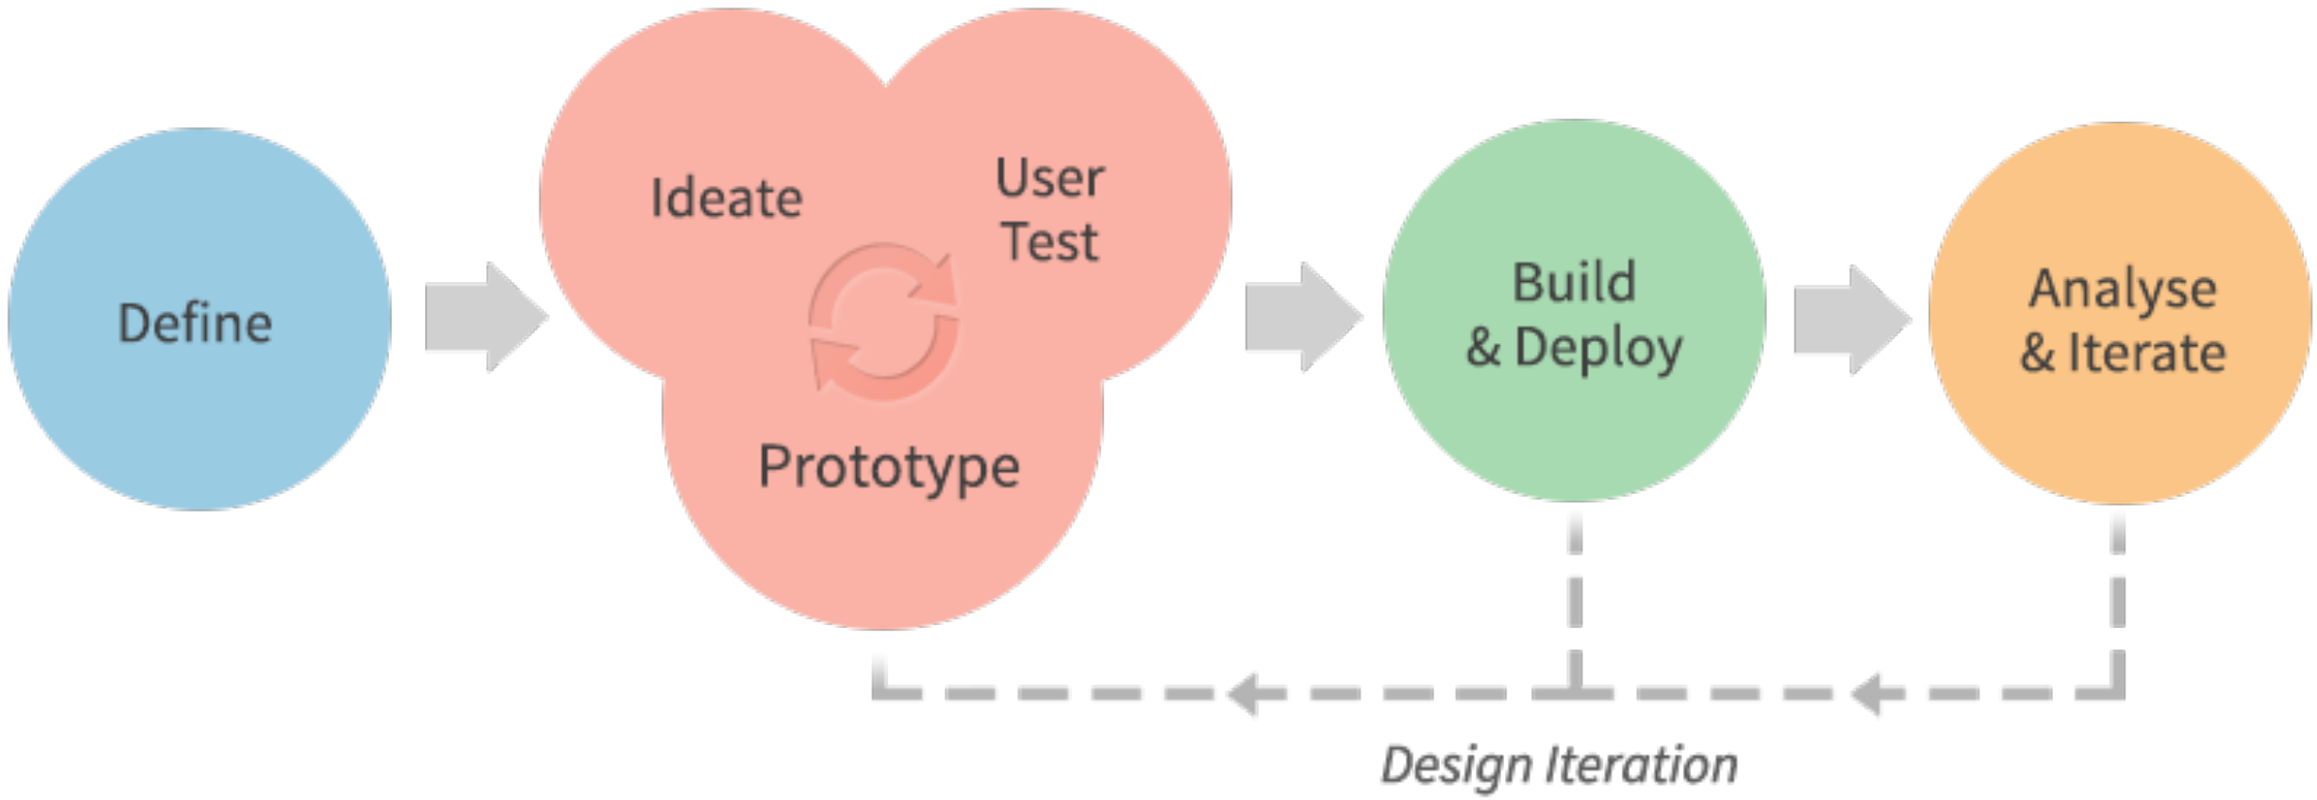
User experience happens, whether you design it or not.

The UX design process



BUILD THE RIGHT THING

BUILD THE THING RIGHT

KNOW YOUR USERS

(goals, needs, pain points)

"I would like to practice speaking more often, but I feel shy"

The Perfectionist

GOAL : Change careers

Learning Online

TED BBC iPlayer YouTube Google

NEEDS / WANTS:

Confidence
Reassurance
Speaking Practice
Build Vocabulary

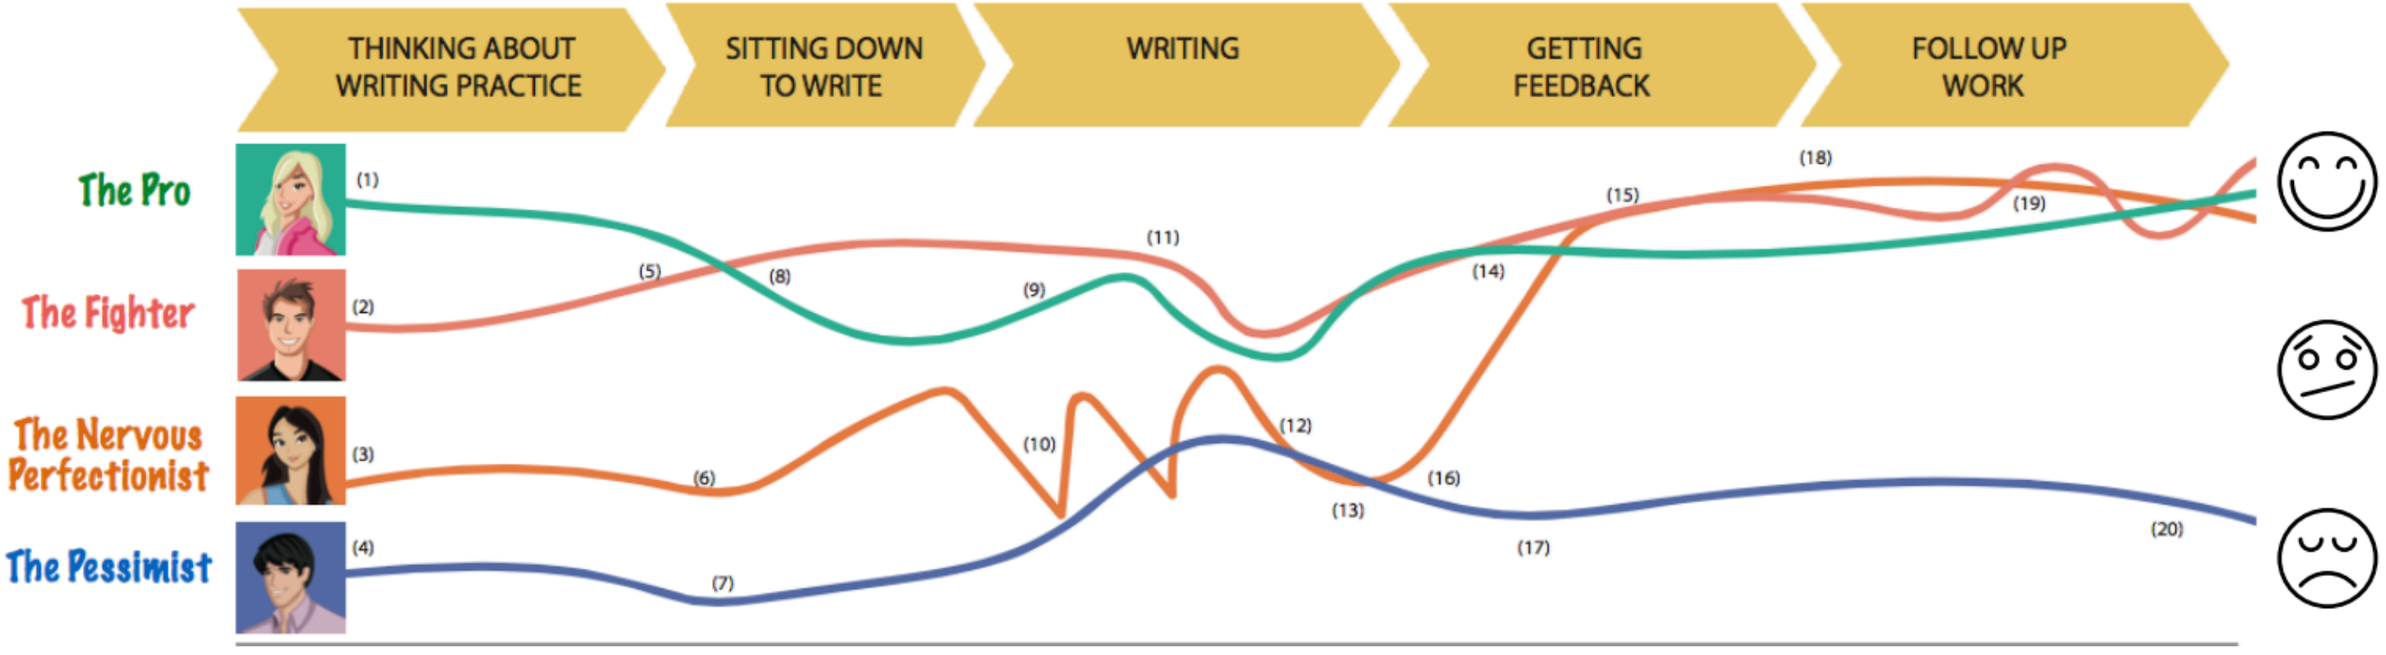
IELTS Writing Practice - Experience Map



FEELING:

Relaxed
(1) "It's not that hard because I know a lot of vocabulary"

Resolute:
(2) "I hate writing but I know that I can only improve if I practice a lot"

Negative:
(3) "Writing is my weakness"

(4) "It's impossible for me"

Focused
(5) "I love writing on paper. I can be alone with my ideas and focus on them"

Stuck
(6) "Before I write I feel frozen"

(7) "It's hard to get ideas even in my own langage"

Distracted
(8) - "Sometimes it's hard to focus because people are always messaging and calling me"

In Flow:
(9) "After I start writing I feel good and can get into it"

Uncertain:
(10) "I want to know the best words to use, but sometimes I'm not sure about the [context]"

Overwhelmed:
(11) "I have lots of ideas, but it's difficult to organise them well"

Pressed for Time
(12) "I always run out of time"

(13) "I never write enough words in the time I'm given"

Supported:
(14) "I like getting my work back because I can know my strenghts and weaknesses"

(15) "It's usually not as bad as I imagined"

Confused
(16) "Sometimes my ideas are wrong but I don't understand why"

Disheartened
(17) "I feel like I'm never going to get the level that I need for IELTS"

Hopeful
(18) "I know I can do better next time"

(19) "If I do the practice my teacher tells me I know I will improve"

Ambivalent
(20) "Maybe there's no point practicing. If I can get a good score in the other IELTS tasks then being bad at writing won't matter"

DOING:

-Make a plan

-Put phone on silent
